CAREER OBJECTIVE

I am a dedicated Computer Science student at Green University of Bangladesh with a strong focus on web development. I enjoy solving real-world problems through technology and aspire to contribute to the development of practical and meaningful digital solutions. I am particularly interested in Artificial Intelligence and Machine Learning and motivated to explore how these technologies can enhance the intelligence and efficiency of modern applications. My goal is to grow as a full-stack developer while building user-focused, scalable, and impactful applications that create real value.

ACADEMIC QUALIFICATION

Bachelor of Science (B.Sc.) in Computer Science and Engineering (CSE)

Feb 2022 – Jan 2026 (Ongoing)
